

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

July 22, 1998

H.R. 700

An act to remove the restriction on the distribution of certain revenues from the Mineral Springs parcel to certain members of the Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians

As ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs on July 15, 1998

H.R. 700 would remove a restriction on the distribution of revenues generated by the Mineral Springs parcel of land to certain members of the Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians. CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 700 would have no impact on the federal budget because the funds and revenues that the bill would affect are nonfederal moneys. Because H.R. 700 would not affect direct spending or receipts, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply.

H.R. 700 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments. Enacting H.R. 700 would allow the band to use the revenues derived from the Mineral Springs parcel to fund tribal programs.
